LR 76, 301

I have a new resolution by Senator Wesely. (Read introduction of LR 301. See pages 2691-92 of the Legislative Journal.) That will be laid over.

PRESIDENT: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign, and do sign engrossed LB 725, 726, 728, 171, 171A, 269, 269A, 608 and 608A. Do we proceed to resolutions now? LR 76. Senator Haberman, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President, point of order.

PRESIDENT: State your point, sir.

SENATOR HABERMAN: These resolutions, like mine, are the 100th anniversary of Imperial and Hays Center winning the track meet. Last year all of those that were noncontroversial, which these are, we passed them as a body instead of going through each one, one, by one, by one. I have visited with Speaker Nichol and I don't believe he would have any objections to the body doing this if the body would like to do it.

PRESIDENT: I assume we have to suspend the rules to do this. Can you certify that each of these is noncontroversial, Senator?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Speaker Nichol, are these all noncontroversial type?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I don't certify to anything. But I believe that these are all noncontroversial. The controversial ones come up tomorrow.

PRESIDENT: Are any of these study committee resolutions?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Perhaps I would suggest that if you wish to do that, you might wish to give the members a right to speak on the last three.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Mr. President and members, we did this last year, as I remember, being assured that there were no controversial amendments in there, but Senator Chambers had
